NOTICE

Policy on Non-Manhandling of Students by Faculty

It is hereby notified that the University maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward any form of physical manhandling of students by faculty members, instructors, or staff during academic, practical, or activity-based sessions.

All faculty and staff are directed to conduct themselves in a professional and respectful manner while interacting with students. Under no circumstances shall any student be subjected to physical handling or inappropriate behaviour.

Any violation of this policy will invite strict disciplinary action as per the State Government/University rules and applicable laws. Such conduct, if reported or found, will be viewed with the utmost seriousness.

All teaching and administrative in-charges of various units are required to ensure that no such incident takes place within their jurisdiction, including in study centers, during both theory and activity sessions.

This policy reaffirms our collective responsibility to uphold the dignity and well-being of our students, and to maintain a safe, inclusive, and respectful learning environment.

(Authority: This has an approval of the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, SASU)
